

Area Congregations in Ministry

Executive Director

The Executive Director at ACIM plays a crucial role in the fight to relieve hunger in Granville County, serving as the driving force behind the organization's mission, strategy, and community impact. This position demands a blend of both leadership and teamwork, in addition to a passion for social justice, and managerial acumen to effectively oversee the pantry's operations, staff, volunteers, and resources.

The primary responsibilities of the role include strategic planning and execution, where the Executive Director must develop and implement strategies that fulfill the organization's mission of alleviating hunger. They are tasked with setting clear goals, managing resources efficiently, and continuously seeking ways to improve and expand the pantry's services. Financial management is another critical aspect of the role, requiring the Executive Director to oversee budgeting, fundraising, and financial reporting to ensure the pantry's sustainability and growth. This involves not just maintaining fiscal health, but actively seeking grants, donations, and other funding opportunities.
